

Women to Vie For Golf Title

City Tourney
At Lochland
June 15-17

The second annual Women's City Golf Tournament will be played over the Lochland Country Club course June 15, 16 and 17 it was announced by Mrs. Gerald Walley, chairman.

Back to defend her title will be Mrs. Hal Smith who won the event last year when it was played on the Meadowbrook Golf Club course. Mrs. Smith will be playing on her home course.

TWO DIVISIONS

Mrs. Walley said that again there will be two divisions—18-hole and 9-hole. As an added event there will be a 27-hole putting tournament which will be held on the Lochland practice green. Only those playing in the 18-hole competition are eligible for the city title.

Jack Weingart, Lochland pro, is tournament director and will be in charge of starting times.

Practice rounds may be played the week of June 7 but Tuesday, June 8, has been set aside for this purpose.

Qualifying rounds will be played June 13 and the flights for the final two days will then be arranged.

A traveling trophy will be presented to the winner and there will be trophies for winners and runners-up in each flight.

Mrs. Walley said that in the 18-hole competition there will be an 18-hole qualifying round, 18 holes of play the second day and nine holes the final day, a total of 45 holes. However, those who do not qualify for the championship flight will play only nine holes the second and third days, a total of 36 holes.

Those playing in the 9-hole competition will play nine holes, a total of 27, on each of the three days of the tournament.

THREE CLUBS

The tournament is open to all members of Lochland, Meadowbrook and Southern Hills country clubs. Last year there were 68 entries. More are expected for this year.

Mrs. Walley explained that the tournament sites were decided last year by drawing. Meadowbrook was first, Lochland second and Southern Hills third.

Assisting Mrs. Walley are Mrs. M. Myers of Meadowbrook and Mrs. W. D. Anderson of Southern Hills.

Women Prepare for City Tournament

Women got a chance to practice for next week's second annual city golf tournament at Lochland Golf Club Tuesday. Pictured with the travelling trophy is defending champion, Mrs. Marge Smith. Winners of last week's play at Lochland were Mary Walley, Loretta Boumann, Rita Derick, Annette Yetman.

Champ Nears Repeat

Marge Smith Holds 15-Stroke Lead in Tourney

Defending champion Marge Smith apparently sewed up her second consecutive Women's City golf championship as she shot an 88 on Wednesday to build a 15-stroke lead over her nearest competitor, Elise Friend.

The round of 88 was accomplished with a score of 42 on the front nine at Lochland Country Club and a 46 on the back nine. Combined with her score on Monday, the defending champion leads the championship flight with a 182.

Elise Friend, only three strokes behind when play began Tuesday, shot a round of 100 to give her a 197. She holds a comfortable 13 stroke lead over her nearest competitor, Florence Hunter.

TIE BROKEN

Mrs. Hunter began Tuesday's play tied for third with Babe Conway at 106. She shot a 104, while Mrs. Conway shot a 109. There was some shuffling for position among the last six women in the championship flight.

Bette White took over the lead in the first flight, which only played nine holes, with hole total of 169. Marge Hardin, one of the three co-leaders after Monday's play, is tied for second with a 170 after shooting a 53 Tuesday. Future McDonald is tied with Marge after shooting a 52. Lois Swanson is also a title contender with a 171.

Joyce Laird relinquished her second flight lead to Edie Perdev. The new leader overtook Joyce Laird with a 59 and has a 27-hole total of 185. Joyce Laird, who shot a 61 Tuesday, is tied for second with Dorothy McCullough at 186.

NINE-HOLE PLAY

Naomi Thiel was one stroke better than Helen Cushing Tuesday and broke a tie for the first flight lead in the nine-hole tournament between the two women. Naomi Thiel leads the flight with a 121 and Helen Cushing is second at 122. June Treps shot a 57 to climb from a tie for sixth to third with a 125.

Mary Ann Sperandio knocked 11 strokes off her 76 of Tuesday to take the second flight lead in the nine-hole tourney with a 118-hole score of 141. Snore Thompson fell from the top position to third as she shot a 74 for an 18-hole score of 146. Leah McCready reduced her Tuesday score by three strokes, but still remained in second at 148.

For the second straight day Bette White shot a par 18 in the putting contest to take a three-stroke lead over her nearest competitors. The leader had two aces on Wednesday. Beulah Cochran, who shot an 18 on Tuesday, posted a 21 Wednesday as she failed to post the two aces she accomplished on Tuesday. Marge Hardin had a 20 Wednesday to go with a 19 on Tuesday, which is the opposite of how Joyce Hanna reached her 39 total.
