Ladies Club Action Starts at Lochland

The Ladies' Club Championships are underway at Lochland Country Club.

Marge Smith is the current leader in the Championship Flight. Betty White is the leader in the President's Flight; Bonnie Asbury leads the First flight; Myra Shampianer is the leader in the Second flight; Dee Uerring heads the Third flight and Judy Anderson is the leader in the Fourth flight.

Cyndy Friend Captures Top Honors In Women's Intra-City Golf Tourney

Cyndy Friend, a sophomore-to-be at Hastings high school, claimed the top accolades in the seventh Women's Intra-City Golf Championships at Meadowbrook Country Club Thursday.

Cyndy shot nine-hole rounds of 41, 48 and 41 enroute to her sizzling 130 stroke total.

GOOD TURNOUT

Some 48 women entered the tournament and prizes were given for the top seven place winners in each flight.

A putting contest was also held and Millie Crabtree won the special competition. The traveling club trophy was won again this year by Lochland Country Club.

Doris Kadel, also the runnerup in the 1969 tourney, finished second behind Cyndy with a fine 133 total. Elise Friend, the defending champion, shot 135 for third place.

Naomi Thiel won the top honors in the President's Flight with a 152. She was buoyed by a 45 on her final nine. Rita Derleg finished second with a 155 — just edging Sue Crabtree who shot 156, Erma Cummings who recorded a 157 and Millie Crabtree who recorded a 158.

First flight and second flight play was 18-hole competition as compared to the 27-hole play by the championship and president's flight.

EASY WIN

Loretta Boumann put together rounds of 59 and 50 to total a 109 in easily garnering the first place honors in the first flight.

Janet Bachman finished second with a 113 while Dorothy McArthur and Liz DeWitt tied for third with 116's. Marie Klein shot a 118 for fifth.

Annette Yetman combined rounds of 67 and 58 to claim the top prize in the second flight with a 125 total.

Helen Cushing shot a 127 for second while Mary McIntire shot 130 for third. Sue Macau-
