Members Celebrate 50 Years of Lochland Golf

Rich history and tradition are two things that come along with the Lochland name. 2012 marks the 50th anniversary of completion of the first nine holes at Lochland Country Club. We can only imagine the thousands of pars, chip-ins and great sand saves that this course has seen over the past 50 years. Amazing!

With this notable anniversary upon the club, the Archive Committee decided to research golf and the club in 1962 in celebration.

Please join the Archive Committee in taking a journey back to 1962 with this recreated newspaper containing articles about the beginning of Lochland golf. All articles were pulled from the Hastings Tribune as submitted by the Ladies' Golf Association.

MONDAY, June 7, 1962

Lochland Country Club's first Women's Golf Association plans a busy summer.

Club Professionals Harry Obitz and John Chimienti have something different for the gals every Tuesday. So far it has been enjoyable.

Had Class Tourney

Last week, for instance, there was a tournament.

Members of the association have been divided into Class A, B, and C.

Class A golfers went nine holes. Babe Conway had the low net with a 30. Mardi Miller was low gross winner with a 40.

Class B had to card only six holes. Jean Portwood was the low netter with a 16, while Myra Shampanier had a 19 for low gross.

In Class C the gals were required to turn in only the first four holes. Lee Magnuson had a 9 and Helen Wiseman took the low gross honors.

Mary Walley President

There were 21 of the 41 members participating in the tournament.

Lochland Ladies to Elect Officers

SATURDAY, MAY 26, 1962

Lochland Ladies to Elect Officers

Lochland Country Club's Women's Golf Association will elect their officers next Tuesday.

Prior to the election meeting the ladies will test the new course. A picnic luncheon will follow the business meeting.

This event will be held rain or shine. Tee off time is 8 o'clock and pairings will be made as the golfers arrive. The election and other business is scheduled for 10:30.

This will be the first of several special events planned for Lochland ladies on Tuesday mornings.
